

CIRKULAR

Sell. Impact. Repeat.

CIRKULAR makes selling as simple as buying, unlocking effortless supply for your re-commerce business

Current Situation

Individual Consumers

Buying new products is a super simple and fully digitized experience... but selling them is a tedious and time-consuming chore.

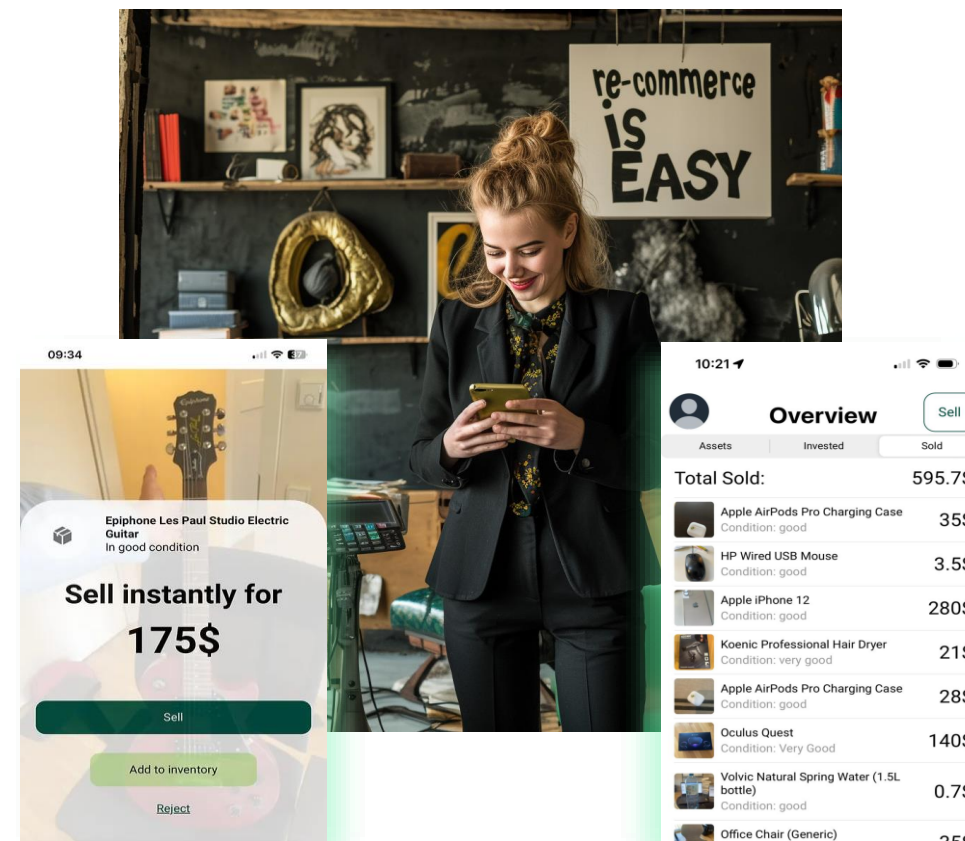

Re-commerce Players

Demand for used products is growing every year...but sourcing consistent, high-quality supply remains fragmented and costly.

Our Solution

We empower users to sell their belongings in seconds on our AI-powered app...helping them turn their stuff into assets...and they love it.

We provide re-commerce players with a consistent, risk-free supply of quality goods from individuals ... allowing our partners to grow their business faster, with less risk.

10x Re-Commerce

We match supply and demand of used goods, allowing both users and partners to focus on what matters most to them.
